

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Is AECL right for you

As a federal Crown corporation, Atomic Energy of Canada Limited (AECL) has a mandate to enable nuclear science and technology and manage the Government of Canada's radioactive waste liabilities. Since 2015, AECL has been delivering its mandate through a Government-owned, Contractor-operated (GoCo) business model, whereby a private-sector organization, Canadian Nuclear Laboratories (CNL), is responsible for managing and operating AECL's sites on its behalf, pursuant to long term agreements. AECL's objectives under the GoCo model include accelerating Environmental Remediation Management, managing the Federal Nuclear Science and Technology Work Plan in support of government priorities and needs, and building a world-class nuclear laboratory that fulfils government priorities and grows commercial revenues, while reducing or containing costs and risks to Canada.

What you will do:

Reporting to the Controller, the Senior Accounting Analyst will provide financial analysis and accounting support for financial reporting, cash and banking, tangible capital assets, funding, and tax. You will have a variety of responsibilities ranging from processing the financial month-end close (including financial reports and analyses ensuring the accuracy and integrity of data and information), to providing budgeting, forecasting, business analysis and business decision support to the organization on a variety of financial and accounting related matters.

Additionally, you will be responsible for treasury related matters including monitoring bank accounts, processing disbursements and acting as the primary liaison with banking representatives and investment managers to ensure AECL meets its cash flow needs.

What you bring:

- Completed post-secondary education in a related field, commerce, finance, economics, accounting, business administration.
- CPA designation is preferred (or in progress).
- 5-10 years of relevant experience.
- Sound knowledge of financial analysis techniques, business analysis, and planning methodology.
- Demonstrated analytical and problem-solving skills with an ability to think strategically and independently.
- Ability to analyze and interpret financial data, investigate variances, and provide assessment of future impacts.
- Ability to work independently under minimal supervision and establish own priorities to meet deadlines.
- Complete familiarity with the use of Microsoft office products (Excel, Word, and PowerPoint) is a requirement.
- Interpersonal, organizational, problem resolution and analytical skills.
- Collaboration and teamwork skills to maintain a healthy work environment.
- Excellent communication skills complemented by proficient writing and presentation skills to relay information during one-on-one sessions to interpret existing policies, procedures, and government regulations to internal and external stakeholders, banking representatives, external contractors, auditors, and coworkers.
- Knowledge of financial systems (specifically Dynamics is preferred) to understand how different modules interact and be able to query and analyze information.

What we bring:

- Comprehensive medical and dental benefits through the Government of Canada.

- Participation in the Public Service Pension Plan (an indexed, defined-benefit pension plan) to help you plan for retirement.
- Vacation, personal and floating days to be used in support of your physical and mental wellbeing.
- A confidential Employee Assistance Program to help with challenges you or your family may be facing.
- A flexible hybrid work model that lets you balance both working from home and nurturing in-person connections by coming into the office or on-site.

What you can expect:

• While this ad will remain posted, we will begin reviewing applications on November 27, 2023.

• This is a full-time position based out of AECL's Ottawa or Chalk River, Ontario office locations.

• This competition will have two rounds of interviews.
