

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Link's Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

BC Public Service Agency
Victoria

Indigenous Cultural Safety Training Coordinator

Contribute your talent for organization and prioritization

Salary $52,800.57 - $59,898.95 annually

Indigenous Cultural Safety Training is delivered jointly by the BC Public Service Agency, Ministry partners and qualified vendor partners. Participation in Indigenous Cultural Safety training is encouraged for all employees within government and is designed to provide participants with what they and their ministries need to know to fulfill government's commitment to the Truth and Reconciliation Report (TRC) Calls to Action and the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP). Indigenous Cultural Safety training is comprised of pre-event work, face to face learning events, post-event learning, and access to online learning resources.

The purpose of this position is to coordinate Indigenous cultural safety learning events and participate as needed as a facilitator and convener in partnership with the Lead, Indigenous Cultural Safety Training. This role encompasses ensuring high quality learning delivery and effective program coordination overall; coordinating and facilitating information sharing and engagement/focus group sessions with Indigenous partners and subject matter experts in a culturally safe manner; and supporting and executing communications and engagement strategies.

Qualifications for this role Include:

• University degree or diploma in a related field (Indigenous studies, social sciences, and conflict resolutions, etc.), or equivalent combination of education and experience may be considered.

• Experience implementing the United Nations Declaration of the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP) and the Truth and Reconciliation Calls to Action.

• Recent, within the last 5 years, minimum of 2 years of experience facilitating adult learning to participants at all levels.

• Minimum of 1 year of experience with managing event and program logistics. Preference may be given to applicants with minimum of 3 years of experience with managing event and program logistics.

• Experience providing excellent customer service.

• Due to nature of the position, only people of indigenous heritage who meet the qualifications for the position will be considered.
