

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Competition Number: 3100-0043A-019

Location: Headquarters, Ottawa

Salary: $113,400 - $127,633, plus $1,486.43 bilingual allowance (Expired salary)

Closing Date: May 31, 2019 at 3:30 pm EST

Under the general direction of the Executive Director, the primary function of this position is to provide strategic leadership for all aspects of Human Rights with the goals and objectives of the PSAC

This position leads PSAC in fostering an environment where conflict is resolved through dialogue and discussion and in which individual differences are respected and discrimination, racism and oppression are not tolerated.

The Coordinator works primarily with the Executive Director, the director responsible for Human Resources as well as the PSAC leadership, management, staff and unions to put in place mechanisms that will result in a change of the organizational culture into a more inclusive work environment. The Coordinator is required to plan, organize and direct all activities in this area, including overseeing the development and the implementation of strategies, policies, processes and training to build organizational capacity to respond to incidents and to develop awareness and understanding of conflict management and human rights issues. This position assists the organization in creating and maintaining an oppression-free working environment by making assessments, providing recommendations and implementing them.
