

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

The Coordinator, Collaborative Projects and Indigenization provides coordination and support for project leaders, projects, and strategic initiatives that advance effective and innovative collaborative leadership practices across the B.C. post-secondary system. This job is suited to a service-oriented critical thinker and culturally respectful engager who enjoys a fast-paced, energetic, learning-focused workplace.

The Coordinator, Collaborative Projects and Indigenization will work with the internal Indigenization Learning Circle in supporting the organization to incorporate the calls to action of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and recognize the principles of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples throughout various organization materials (policies, processes, and communications). This position will support the BCcampus team to advance their journey in reconciliation, recognize and decolonize processes and actions, and build relationships by indigenizing services as appropriate.

This position reports to the Director, Collaborative Projects. The Coordinator, Collaborative Projects and Indigenization also works and liaises with BCcampus staff, along with staff and educators from partner institutions and various government contacts associated with collaborative projects.

Other

At BCcampus our mandate is to provide teaching, learning, educational technology, and open education support to the post-secondary institutions of B.C. Ultimately, our goal is to improve student learning. Our operational methodology falls somewhere between a government agency and an agile start-up, ensuring we're consistently demonstrating our flexible, responsive approach to improving the teaching and learning landscape of B.C. BCcampus acknowledges the sÉTMl̓ilwÉTMtaÉ• É¬ tÉTMmÉTMxÉ• (Tsleil-Waututh), SkwxwÁ7mesh-ulh TemÁ-xl±w (Squamish), xÉ•mÉTMl̓kÉ•ÉTMyl̓ÉTMm (Musqueam), Wl̓±SÁ• NEĀ† (Saanich), and the Esquimalt and Songhees Nations of the LÉTMk̓l̓É•ÉTMÁ•ÉTMn (Lekwungen) Peoples, on whose traditional territories we are privileged to live, work, and play. Through our work we are learning to incorporate Indigenous epistemologies into our actions and understandings, supporting decolonization, reconciliation, and Indigenization to advocate systemic changes in the post-secondary environment of B.C.
