

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

VISION

Millbrook First Nation to be the economic engine for the benefit of its members.

This Moment, This Position

Millbrook First Nation is seeking an experienced and trauma-informed Mental Wellness Coordinator (MWC) to join their team.

Under the direct supervision of the Director of Health Services, the Mental Wellness Coordinator will oversee and coordinate mental health and addictions services in Millbrook and provide direct counselling to adults in the community.

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES

The Mental Wellness Coordinator will:

Develop, coordinate and evaluate mental health and addictions programs/services in Millbrook.

Develop crisis response protocols in the community and identify training opportunities as needed.

Facilitate community engagement on mental wellness needs of the community and document the knowledge gathered from this engagement.

Engage in trauma-informed, collaborative person and family-centred care focused on intervention, treatment and maintenance.

Offer after-hours and weekend/holidays support as needed in crisis situations.

Encourage clients to be active participants in treatment (individual and group) and in maintaining mental wellness.

Plan and administer culturally relevant and holistic activities and treatment to clients both individually or in group/peer settings.

Monitor clients' treatment progress and recommend interventions as needed.

Act as a client advocate to coordinate required mental health and addictions services.

Work with other staff to address crisis situations (individual and community-based).

Work with other organizations/programs to provide mental health and addictions services to the community.

Act in a professional and ethical manner, following all recognized codes of ethics, standards, legislation, and guidelines relevant to clinical practice and the profession.

Complete annual training required for a position such as crisis intervention training.

Maintain confidentiality of records relating to clients and treatment plans at all times.

Other related duties as assigned by the direct supervisor.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE

A minimum of a Bachelor's degree in Social Work, Educational Counselling, Clinical Psychology, Nursing or comparable degree with strong clinical skills and experience.

Currently registered or eligible to be registered with respective professional association.

Minimum two years related experience in providing a range of community-based mental health services or an equivalent combination of education, training, and experience.

A trauma-informed approach is an asset.

Program development, implementation and evaluation experience.

Frontline experience in client support is preferred.

Preference will be provided to candidates with prior experience with First Nations, especially in community-based settings, particularly in the area of mental health and substance use challenges.

Previous project/program coordination and counselling experience.

SKILLS

An understanding of peer support and the value of peer-led programming (completion of peer support training preferred).

Demonstrated knowledge and skills of advocacy, support navigation, and mental health recovery principles.

Knowledge in providing culturally-informed, non-judgemental client and family-centred care.

Excellent facilitation skills, including the ability to carry out workshops, community engagements, and public presentations.

Computer skills - Microsoft Office Suite, Outlook Calendar, and Zoom.

Current Level 1 First Aid and CPR certification (or willingness to complete it).

Mental Health First Aid (or willingness to complete it).

Criminal Record clearance will be required.

Valid driver's license and use of a reliable vehicle during working hours.

Knowledge and skills of advocacy, empowerment, and mental health recovery principles.

The successful candidate will be required to obtain or upgrade the following certifications: - Criminal Record Check (Vulnerable Sector) - Child Abuse Registry - First Aid/Level C CPR

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE

The ideal contributor for this role is socially aware, passionate, and has excellent organizational and time management skills. They are comfortable making ethical and thoughtful recommendations, supported by research to support the healing and recovery of community members.

They have a strong understanding of social, economic and political concerns and histories in Indigenous communities and possess high standards of discretion, sound judgment and confidentiality in handling sensitive information.

As an effective relationship builder that values trust and collective well-being, this candidate brings a logical and trauma-informed approach to Health Services.

THE PACKAGE

Salary: $55,000 - $65,000 (Range negotiable based on experience)

Pension plan and Benefits

The successful candidate will be required to work from 9:00 am to 4:30 pm Mon- Thur, and 9:00 am to 4:00 pm Friday (Occasionally outside of these hours if the need arises).

Location: Millbrook, Nova Scotia

STATEMENT OF INTENTION

We are seeking a candidate with knowledge of and cultural sensitivity towards First Nations culture and our way of life.

Preference will be provided to qualified Indigenous peoples, particularly those that identify as Mi'kmaq, and/or who are from Millbrook First Nation.

If accommodation to the recruitment process would help you to present your full contribution potential to the process, we would love to support you.

APPLICATION DETAILS

Applications will be accepted until February 7, 2023.

Please include a cover letter that speaks to your experience and offers a glimpse of your personality. Wela'lin!

What to Expect

We closely review all applications and read each cover letter (we promise).

If you are selected as a top candidate, expect a phone call with a Lead Placemaker from P4G. This is someone who treats the recruitment process non-traditionally. We want to know what inspires you.

Selected candidates will proceed to a virtual interview with the Lead P4G Placemaker and 2-3 organization representatives.

Finalists may participate in a second round interview or skills activity (virtual or in person).

P4G will check employment references and assist in presenting an offer to the successful candidate.
