

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Responsibilities will include, but are not limited to:

Using a lens of social-emotional learning, create a class environment and rapport that inspires and supports learning and personal growth;

Motivate students to develop skills, attitudes and knowledge needed to provide a solid foundation for further education in accordance with each students ability;

Establish positive relationships with parents, faculty and other staff members;

Ensure the written, taught and assessed curriculum is in line with the IB and Ministry of Education curriculum ensuring differentiation;

Develop culturally relevant, inclusive and responsive Math curriculum for diverse learners;

Develop course outlines, unit plans, lesson plans ensuring integration of all aspects of the IB Middle Years Program curricula, with a focus on inquiry based learning;

Update all necessary records accurately as required by the Ministry, IBO and school guidelines;

Communicate information regularly to students, colleagues and parents regarding student progress including formally through report cards and parent-teacher meetings;

Keep up-to-date and incorporate best practices in subject area and approaches to teaching and learning through professional reading, participating in workshops and other professional development opportunities;

Participate actively in faculty and department/division meetings and meet regularly with all course teams to plan, review and update the written curriculum;

Assume responsibility for and participate in co-curricular activities and supervision duties;

Participate as an Advisor, mentoring students and meeting them regularly.

Experience

Required Qualifications and Experience:

Bachelor's degree or higher from an accredited institution with the relevant specialist in Math;

Ontario College of Teachers certification or equivalent degree with I/S qualifications in Math;

Minimum three teaching experience;

Experience in and knowledge of IB is a strong asset;

Strong curriculum development skills and assessment practices that incorporate strategies relevant to the age and stage assessment practices;

A relational educator who incorporates Social-Emotional Learning and emotional coaching strategies in their practice;

Experience and/or desire to incorporate principles of diversity, equity and inclusion in curriculum;

Knowledge of relevant technology and able to work in a laptop and online environment;

Adept at delivering an education program electronically and able to use electronic communication to correspond with students, parents, colleagues and the community at large;

Belief in and alignment with Branksome Hall's mission, vision and values:

Passionate about teaching and being in service of students and the community;

Possess strong oral and written communication skills;

Ability to work independently with little direct supervision and be a collaborative team member.

Work Environment

Why Join Branksome Hall:
