

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Link's Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Red River College is a leader in applied learning and innovation. Our talented team of employees is passionate about education, innovation and student success. We offer competitive salaries, extensive benefits, and the opportunity for personal and professional growth in a rewarding career.

Duties: Reporting to the Manager of Counselling and Accessibility Services, the Administrative Assistant is responsible for providing reception and administrative support to Counselling and Accessibility Services (CAS) and Student Employment Services (SES). As a front line representative for these areas, this position includes greeting students, listening to their concerns or requests, determining service needs, and making appropriate referrals and appointments with CAS counsellors and SES advisors. For students requesting counselling services, the incumbent assesses urgency, assists students with completing appropriate forms, and schedules meetings. The incumbent provides administrative support to CAS by managing and distributing information within the office, answering phones, taking memos and minutes, maintaining files, and sending/receiving correspondence. The incumbent provides support to counsellors in preparing for workshops and presentations including setting up technical equipment. For Student Employment Services, this position assists with organizing events, collects job orders from employers, posts job postings online as well as forwards to various College departments. The incumbent also maintains the departments filing system and electronic data bases, archives closed files, and compiles monthly/annual statistics for both Counselling and Accessibility Services and Student Employment Services. Distributes mail, maintains office supplies, ensures public spaces are tidy.
