

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

About Bridges for Women Society

Bridges has been providing life-changing programs to women overcoming the effects of trauma and abuse since 1988. Bridges inspire women affected by trauma, violence, or abuse to reclaim their lives and build financial security through our healing, education, and employment programs. Our services are open to all women (transgender and cisgender), non-binary, and two-spirit people who identify as a part of the women's community and who have been impacted by violence or trauma at any time in their lives.

About the Role

The Indigenous Women's Bridging Program Evaluator and Program Support is responsible for gathering information from client participation in the Indigenous Women's Bridging Program for an evaluation project called Sisters' Stories. These stories are a part of evaluating the impact and design of the Indigenous Women's Bridging Program. The successful candidate has a keen interest in supporting women to break the cycles of abuse and trauma, has strong people skills, and works well in a collaborative environment. This is a part-time temporary (till March 31st, 2024) position.

What you will be doing

- Ongoing participant observation and journaling in the pilot projects.
- Participates in the implementation of the participant consent entry/one month/exit and follow-up surveys.
- Assistance with recruitment, study explanation, communication, and follow-up with program participants.
- Support in the development of the Blueprint and data entry & data analysis support.

What you will need

- Enrolled or completed an undergraduate program in an area related to Indigenous studies, Social Work, and Anthropology.
- Lived experience as a self-identified Indigenous person and an in-depth knowledge within the area of Indigenous Peoples identity.
- Understanding and practicing with trauma-informed approaches.
- Experience with MS Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint).
- Strong English writing and communication skills.
