

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

NCFST is committed to staffing a workforce representative of the Aboriginal population we serve. We encourage First Nations, Metis and Inuit applicants to apply and to please self-identify in their cover letter.

Mdewgaan Lodge (mi-day-gaan / medicine lodge) serves Aboriginal women with young children who are struggling with addiction issues and mental health challenges related to complex trauma and poverty, and who are either homeless, precariously housed, or at risk of homelessness. The program stems the flow of children into child welfare, breaking down historical cycles, and addressing the overrepresentation of Aboriginal children in the child welfare system. Our services are trauma-informed and holistic, utilizing Traditional Healing, Traditional Counselling, and Land-based Cultural Programming combined with mainstream clinical interventions.

Main Responsibilities:

Under the direction of the Supervisor, Mdewgaan Lodge, the Enikwenimaaged (Helper) will:

- Undertake the role of “Enikwenimaaged” as traditionally defined by Aboriginal culture with the focus on meeting the needs of the family.
- Provide a safe, secure, and Culturally appropriate setting by ensuring that residents abide by the rules and expectations of the Mdewgaan Lodge.
- Work within the Mdewgaan Lodge to establish in-depth trusting and nurturing relationships with mothers and their children to ensure they are treated as the Creator’s special gifts.
- Act as a Culturally appropriate maternal role model to mothers and children in the Mdewgaan Lodge.
- Assess and address the cultural needs of the mother’s and their children in the Mdewgaan Lodge.
- Assist residents on an individual basis with maintaining their cultural goals while at the Mdewgaan Lodge.
- Ensure that equipment, inventory, and supplies are maintained and protected.
- Ensure that the physical space of the program is clean and organized.
- Provide Culturally appropriate support to the Mdewgaan Lodge Clinical Team regarding the needs of the families.
- Provide verbal and written updates regarding the mother’s and children in the Mdewgaan Lodge as requested.
- Represent Native Child and Family Services of Toronto at community level.
- Other duties as assigned.

What we’re looking for:

- Completion of high school.
- Must have 1-2 years of experience working in a supportive role within the Aboriginal community.
- Lived experience in Aboriginal cultural beliefs, values, norms, ceremony, and teachings.
- Alternatively, a combination of education and experience will be considered.
- Knowledge of the resources available for Aboriginal peoples with respect to issues such as homelessness, addictions, and mental health.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills; organizational skills; initiative, and respect for confidentiality.
- Current CPR and First-Aid certificate or willing to complete prior to commencement of employment.
- Pass a police record check (Vulnerable Sector)
- A valid (G) Drivers License would be an asset.
- Demonstrated understanding, and commitment to, integrating the Native Child and Family Services of Toronto Mission and values into practice, service, and relationships.
- Demonstrated understanding of workplace Health and Safety practices and understanding of an employee’s responsibility under current legislation.
- Ability to work effectively with all levels of staff, to maintain effective communication and working relationships, demonstrating strong interpersonal skills, tact, sensitivity and build strong internal relationships
