

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Work at CBC/Radio-Canada

At CBC/Radio-Canada, we create content that informs, entertains and connects Canadians on multiple platforms. Our successes and accomplishments are driven by embodying and upholding values, which include creativity, integrity, inclusiveness and relevance.

Do you think you have the ability and drive to keep up with this exciting, ever-changing industry? Whether it be in front of the camera, on air, online or behind the scenes, you would be joining a team that thrives on making connections and telling stories that are important to Canadians.

Your role

CBC Edmonton is looking for an experienced News Editor/Presenter to lead our weekday afternoon radio newscasts.

Based in Edmonton, the News Editor/Presenter is a key member of the news team and will play an integral editorial and leadership role in preparing and presenting the daily news. You must be an exceptional journalist and leader, and thrive in the fast-paced, high-pressure world of breaking news. You will understand the diverse and changing population in Edmonton, and the importance of reflecting all our communities in our content.

Key tasks:

Plan, organize and deliver radio newscasts and news breaks every 30 minutes.

Chase breaking news on tight deadlines in coordination with the assignment desk.

Write and edit radio scripts.

Conduct interviews on and off air.

Interact live on air with radio hosts and program participants.

Pitch original story ideas.

Experience

Four years of comparable and relevant experience that demonstrates knowledge of the broadcasting industry preferred.

Education Requirements

Journalism degree or equivalent preferred.

Essential Skills

We are looking for a candidate with the following:

Demonstrated understanding and awareness of issues and events particular to Edmonton and to daily news.

Demonstrated connection to and understanding of the diverse and underrepresented communities of Edmonton.

Excellent reporting, interviewing and writing skills.

Ability to generate original story ideas and creative treatments.

Engaging on-air presence.

Strong presentation style and ease with live, on-air work.

Ability to present material with credibility and authority in a range of situations including live events and breaking news.

Ability to self-operate a studio audio board during a live newscast.

Ability to quickly cut audio clips from a variety of audio and video sources.

Ability to work effectively under pressure and deadlines, reacting quickly to changing priorities and breaking news.

Strong interpersonal and team playing skills.

Strong desire to live and promote the values of diversity and an inclusive and respectful work culture.

Creative, flexible and self-motivated.

Ability to work a variety of shifts including early starts, late finishes and weekends.

Please include additional documentation or a link to your online demo or website, blog or video in your cover letter.

Candidates may be subject to skills and knowledge testing.
