

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

To support this work, we are looking to find a Community Consultant who is early in their career and looking to expand their knowledge and contribute their diverse research, analysis and strategic thinking skills to support our team. This person will be detail oriented and have the ability to distill large amounts of information into specific takeaways delivered through effective written and verbal communication skills. They will be willing to, and possess the humility required to, participate in and lead difficult and sometimes sensitive conversations around community challenges. In addition to the unmatched learning and project experience you will receive; you can expect to be responsible for the following:

Project Delivery

- Conduct research and analysis;
- Complete calculations to support clients in understanding cost of services, utility rates, and off-site levies;
- Research, compile and prepare reports, manuals and presentations;
- Work with team members to design and produce deliverables including proposals, reports, memos, presentations, and other related documents;
- Plan and facilitate workshops;
- Research, collect, and distill information on community services, infrastructure and best practices;
- Applying theory and providing workable solutions to strategic policy and housing plans;
- Provide accurate and timely input on technical reports, plans, studies, proposals, and oral presentations as required;
- Analyse and interpret a variety of qualitative and quantitative data around markets, policy plans and the economy;
- Support the development of business feasibility studies, business plans and financial modelling;

- â€¢ Support communication and engagement with various stakeholders;
- â€¢ Translate and present technical information in plain language formats for various audiences; and
- â€¢ Assist in management of projects and project finances.

Client Relationships and Practice Development

- â€¢ Prepare client plans in coordination with our market leaders;
- â€¢ Foster collaborative and respectful relationships with our clients;
- â€¢ Work with clients to define their challenges, formulate solutions, and develop a plan to implement those solutions;
- â€¢ Participate in discussions with clients about project scope, schedule, and budget; and
- â€¢ Demonstrate a commitment to learning through the ongoing achievement of personal and professional goals.

Experience

About You

The right candidate for this opportunity will have at least 3 years of work experience from an accredited university degree or masterâ€™s degree program and work experience in the field of political science, business administration, economics, Indigenous studies, community development, engineering, planning, or other related fields is preferred and will be committed to providing great service to our internal and external clients. In addition, the following attributes would be considered a great benefit to this role:

- â€¢ You have a keen interest or direct experience in pursuing a career working with municipalities and Indigenous communities in Alberta;
- â€¢ You can work on multiple projects and thrive in a self-directed work environment;
- â€¢ You can work independently, but at the same time are a team player;
- â€¢ You take initiative, are a problem solver and continually deliver consistent, high-quality work;
