

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Aplin Executive invites interested candidates from all cultural and international backgrounds to consider this leadership opportunity.

Created in 1997, SaskCulture is a non-profit, community-based, volunteer-driven, provincial cultural organization that works with members, volunteers and community partners to build a culturally vibrant province. Often recognized as a funder of cultural activity, SaskCulture also plays an important role in nurturing cultural engagement in Saskatchewan. Together with Sask Sport and Saskatchewan Parks & Recreation Association, SaskCulture also governs and guides policy direction for the Saskatchewan Lotteries Trust Fund for Sport, Culture and Recreation. SaskCulture's work and support reaches lands covered by Treaties 2, 4, 5, 6, 8, 10, the traditional lands of the Nāhiyaw, Dakota, Dene, Lakota, Nakota and Nakawā peoples, as well as homeland of the Métis.

Reporting to the Board of Directors, the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) has operational responsibility for the organization and ensures that the strategic direction and budget are followed. The CEO is also responsible for the fair, dignified and safe treatment of all staff, consumers, partners and volunteers and that the organization's credibility and public image are maintained. Ensuring that distribution of funds from the Saskatchewan Lotteries Trust fund are carried out in a fair and equitable manner also falls under the responsibility of the CEO.

Qualifications:

- A minimum of 7-10 years' management experience.
- Prior experience in a non-profit, government, educational or similar environment is an asset.
- A broad understanding of, and passion for, the cultural sector, including arts, heritage and multiculturalism.
- Prior experience reporting and/or presenting to a Board is a major asset.
- Extensive advocacy, diplomacy and/or government relations experience is an asset.
- Superior relationship building and communications skills.
- Strong financial acumen and prior experience with fiduciary responsibility.
- Visionary, creative, strategic and equitable leader.
- Strong cultural awareness and open-mindedness.
- Understanding of grant funding models.
