Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

BC Public Service
Indigenous Youth Internship Program (IYIP)
Internships will begin on September 1, 2022, and end on August 31, 2023.
Internships may be located in Vancouver, Victoria, or multiple communities around the Province of BC, depending on positions and operational requirements.
Gain valuable experience through this award-winning program
When you take on the role as an Indigenous Youth Intern, with the award-winning Indigenous Youth Internship Program, the experience can provide you with an opportunity that you'll never forget. Find out more about the program, its people and successes, and submit your application before the deadline. You will learn many aspects of public service and provincial government processes, participate in workshops across the province, develop your leadership and professional skills and create a path for your future education and career development.
The Indigenous Youth Internship Program (IYIP) will launch its 16th year in the public service this September. The one-year opportunity - led by the BC Public Service Agency - welcomes exceptional Indigenous youth ages 18-29 and supports you through:
- Nine months of work in a ministry.
- Three months of work at an Indigenous organization in BC.
Qualifications for this role include:
- Due to nature of the program and in accordance with Section 42 of the BC Human Rights Code, only people of Indigenous heritage (First Nations, Metis, or Inuit) will be considered.
- 18 to 29 years of age as of September 1, 2022.
- Currently reside in British Columbia.
- Grade 12 graduation as of March 2022, or equivalent with some post-secondary education, or equivalent with a combination of work, life, community, education and/or experience as noted below.
- Demonstrated leadership potential, either through work, community, or volunteer experience, for example:
o Youth representative on a youth council

o Community governance
o Organizing your community's participation in large events/gatherings
o Co-ordinating cultural events
o Board member for an organization
