

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Work at CBC/Radio-Canada

At CBC/Radio-Canada, we create content that informs, entertains and connects Canadians on multiple platforms. Our successes and accomplishments are driven by embodying and upholding values, which include creativity, integrity, inclusiveness and relevance.

Do you think you have the ability and drive to keep up with this exciting, ever-changing industry? Whether it be in front of the camera, on air, online or behind the scenes, you would be joining a team that thrives on making connections and telling stories that are important to Canadians.

Your role

We are looking for a reporter who is connected to this community, who knows how to find original stories and who has a passion for storytelling. You are a creative, strong critical thinker who can tell compelling stories on multiple platforms: digital, radio and television. You will be expected to report breaking news, produce original journalism and write stories and analysis for online platforms. You must demonstrate and maintain exceptional skill in writing about Saskatchewan issues in a clear and concise manner.

Note: We have three full time, permanent opportunities available in Regina!

Education Requirements

University degree or equivalent with a minimum of three years of recent, related experience.

Essential Skills

We are looking for a candidate with the following:

Ability to generate, pitch and pursue strong, creative story ideas.

Story-teller with a strong demonstrated connection to the diversity of Regina and Saskatchewan.

Proven ability to work in diverse teams.

Working knowledge of digital news including social media.

Flexibility with hours of work and willingness to learn and take on new tasks across all CBC platforms.

Sound news judgment and ability to work effectively under newsroom deadline pressure.

Experience in determining potential legal and journalistic issues and ability to act on them.

Strong communication and interpersonal skills; strong team player.

Ability to generate original, enterprise journalism.

High energy and enthusiasm towards journalism.

Ability to work a variety of shifts including early starts, late finishes and weekends.

Please include additional documentation or a link to your online demo or website, blog or video in your cover letter.
