

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Richmond School District 38
Aboriginal Support Worker

Recognized for its diversity, dedication to inclusion, and strong partnerships with the community, the Richmond School District is among one of the largest districts in British Columbia with some of the highest graduation rates in the province. With a long history of providing high quality experiences for students, the Richmond School District strives to be "The Best Place to Learn and Lead."

Richmond School District operates 38 elementary schools, 10 secondary schools, alternate programs, continuing education and a number of additional facilities. The district enrolls approximately 21,000 students (K-12) and employs over 3000 dedicated staff.

The role of the Aboriginal Support Worker is to provide students with Aboriginal ancestry opportunities to enhance their cultural, emotional, and social well-being while ensuring their academic success. Working closely and collaboratively with the Support teachers, the Support Worker's responsibilities vary according to the students' needs but all have the ultimate objective of assisting youth to stay in school and experience success.

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

(This is not an exhaustive list of the duties to be performed.)

This position reports to the District Administrator for Learning Services who is responsible for Aboriginal Education, and includes:

- Working collaboratively with the Aboriginal Support Teachers, as well as other members of the Aboriginal Support Department and other school staff (i.e. teachers, counselors, support workers) as well as community partners to address barriers to educational success;
- Providing support for students' educational programming through in-class assistance as appropriate;
- Assisting the school-based team with connections to outside agencies (i.e. MCFD, Aboriginal Authority, Purpose Society) as appropriate;
- Advocating for students' and supporting their overall personal and social development;
- Providing cultural support and learning to those students with Aboriginal ancestry;
- Compiling accurate records and maintaining individual student files;

This is a 30 hours per week 6 hours per day position to start effective immediately.

Experience

Required Qualifications (Knowledge, skills and abilities)

- Grade 12 or equivalent plus a minimum of one year post-secondary education in a First Nations field of study such as, Anthropology, Sociology or History;
- Minimum of 2-3 years and recent full-time experience working with Aboriginal youth within the public school system;
- Proven ability to develop and maintain rapport and effectively work with students, families, community agencies and school-based teams;
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills and proven ability to express ideas effectively both orally and in writing;
- Demonstrate a thorough understanding and knowledge of Aboriginal culture and history;
- Ability to use a computer and standard classroom and office equipment;
- Preference will be given to candidates with Aboriginal ancestry;
- Valid Driver's License and regular access to a vehicle.
