

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

We are seeking an individual who is aligned with our core values and reflects our core competencies to join our faculty & staff as the Manager, Experiential and Global Learning. This is a contract position.

About Havergal

Founded in 1894 and located on a beautiful 22-acre campus in midtown Toronto, Canada, Havergal College is one of Canada's pre-eminent independent schools for girls from Junior Kindergarten through Grade 12. At the forefront of women's education for over 125 years, Havergal offers a contemporary liberal arts education and is rooted in the Anglican tradition. Havergal's mission is to prepare young women to make a difference. Through our outstanding academic and cocurricular programs, we nurture a culture of capability that fosters self-confidence, leadership, critical thinking, and global mindedness within our students.

At Havergal College, we believe that great schools are made up of great people. We are committed to building a diverse workforce and an inclusive workplace. We encourage applications from all qualified candidates with a diverse range of experiences and perspectives, including women, BIPOC (Black, Indigenous and People of Colour) peoples, and persons with disabilities. We are seeking candidates with a wide range of experiences and diverse identities and perspectives to contribute to our culture of excellence.

The Position:

The Manager, Experiential and Global Learning, reports directly to the VP, Experiential Education and Innovation, and works in collaboration and coordination with Forum for Change colleagues, as well as faculty and students in supporting the school's strategic direction and supports student development of the 8 characteristics of the Portrait of a Havergal Graduate. They explore, develop and seek to grow global learning experiences at the local, national and international levels. They ensure robust support for the logistics and operations of implementing these experiences in Havergal's Upper School. In carrying out the specific accountabilities, this role will lead the coordination and collaboration of global programming and Community Partnerships across the Upper School, working closely with the student life team. Bringing the lenses of People, Perspective, Partnership and Place, this role will work to build capacity in Havergal employees and students to live the values of the school: integrity, inquiry, courage and compassion.
