

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Assistant Deputy Minister
Indigenous Education and Reconciliation
Ministry of Education
Victoria, BC

The Ministry of Education's role is to provide leadership, set standards and provide funding to the K-12 education system through governance, legislation, policy, curriculum, assessments, and education programs. Indigenous Education aligns with commitments to the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, the Calls to Action of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada, and the Draft Principles that Guide the Province of British Columbia's Relationship with Indigenous People.

Reporting to the Deputy Minister, the Assistant Deputy Minister (ADM), Indigenous Education and Reconciliation, will fill a fundamental role supporting government's reconciliation mandate in education. This position is responsible for the education policies and programs for Indigenous Education in the K to 12 education system. The ADM will provide direction to the Division and sector by translating the vision to goals and objectives for Indigenous Education. They will create a concrete reconciliation strategy that delivers outcomes and supports change through leadership and strong sector relationships.

The successful candidate is a proven leader and has a solid background in government policy and knowledge of education systems and programs. They will have experience working collaboratively with Indigenous communities and a firm understanding of the challenges and opportunities related to Indigenous education. The ideal candidate will have a university degree in a related discipline or equivalent combination of education and experience. Preference for this position will be given to applicants who self-identify as First Nations, Métis, or Inuit with the required combination of education and experience.

The appointee will be required to consent to a criminal record check. For more information regarding this opportunity, please visit www.gov.bc.ca/executiveopportunities.
