

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Link's Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

The Kamloops-Thompson School District is looking for energetic youth Community Outreach Workers that will provide services to Aboriginal students living in Kamloops, Chase, Clearwater, Barriere and the surrounding communities within the school district. There are three (3) temporary, full-time positions, effective immediately to June 30, 2021. These are contract interim positions funded by the Aboriginal Education Council for the 2020-2021 school year. There will be three separate positions, with the successful applicants serving the Kamloops, Chase or North Thompson areas. Reporting to the District Principal-Aboriginal Education, the Aboriginal Community Outreach Worker is responsible for engaging with students, community groups, agencies, organizations and service providers with the purpose to support student attendance and student success. This successful applicant will be required to work flexible hours which include evenings and weekends to meet the needs of the youth and program. This position will be filled by competition.

Responsibilities of the Aboriginal Community Outreach Worker include:

- Support students who have been placed on flexible learning plans due to COVID-19.

- Provides assistance and support for the implementation of programs aimed at developing educational, social, emotional and behavioural needs of Aboriginal students.

- Observes, monitors, records and provides feedback in areas identified as specific program goals.

- Tracks students' progress, performance and attendance as required to the appropriate teachers, counsellors, parents and bands.

- Arranges for parental consent for the passing of information to bands as required.

- Consults with counsellors concerning "at risk" students and assists with career preparation guidance and career counselling under teacher's direction.

- Facilitates referrals to community support services, agencies and District alternative programs as required, as determined by the school-based team.

- Supervision of students when working with them.

- May participate in field trips and class activities/outings.

- Participates in home visits as determined by the Principal.

- Assists with implementation/reinforcement of behavioural expectations and appropriate conduct and provides positive behaviour/redirection, as outlined in the school plan.

- Participates in school based team and other consultative meetings as requested.

- Promotes cross cultural awareness and acts as a positive role model and advocate for Aboriginal students in various areas including but not limited to career/life planning and transitions.

Qualifications:

- Grade 12 supplemented by a minimum of one (1) year post-secondary education in a related field, such as Child/Youth care worker.

- Two (2) years of proven previous work experience involving children with severe social, emotional and behavioural needs.

- Demonstrated experience with elementary and secondary students.

- Knowledge of First Nations, Metis and Inuit history, culture, values, knowledge of the historical and contemporary issues facing Aboriginal families and communities.

- Valid BC Driver's license.
