Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

There is an energy in Calgary that exhilarates, invigorates and motivates. It is a place of big skies and big innovative ideas. As one of the top 10 cities in the world, anything is possible, and everything is on the horizon.

Calgary Economic Development (CED) is a not-for-profit corporation governed by an independent Board of Directors and funded by The City of Calgary, community partners, other orders of government and the private sector through the Team Calgary program. As the stewards of Calgary's economic strategy â€œCalgary in the New Economyâ€• , the incoming CEO and the Leadership Team at CED are empowered to drive the strategy forward and achieve its key objectives.

Reporting to the Board of Directors, the next Chief Executive Officer has a rare opportunity to advance Canadaâ€™s most energizing city in achieving economic successes, embracing shared prosperity, and building a strong community for Calgary. Together with the Board and staff, and through multiple stakeholder and partner relationships, this dynamic thought leader will develop and execute an innovative strategy advancing Calgary Economic Developmentâ€™s mission, vision, mandate, and key program initiatives. Working as the key advocate with business, government and community partners, the Chief Executive Officer will position Calgary as the location of choice for the purpose of attracting business investment, fostering trade, and growing Calgaryâ€™s talented workforce.

The successful candidate will have 10 years of executive level experience working within complex public or private multi-stakeholder organizations, ideally with a well-established focus on economic development initiatives across a wide variety of industries. The new CEO is an inspirational leader and authentic relationship builder with a global mindset who can gain trust and confidence with diverse groups including business, industry, and all orders of government locally, nationally and internationally.
