

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Link's Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Your role

We are looking for a Producer to join our team, working to support all platforms - Digital/social, radio and television.

This position will require flexibility with scheduling, but will work primarily from 11:30-20:15 Monday to Friday.

We are seeking a leader and consummate team player with superb journalistic skills. You will ensure we are effectively and efficiently covering the stories and issues affecting the communities of Prince Edward Island. You will be part of a team working to bring the stories of PEI to all Canadians. You will be responsible for proposing original story ideas, chasing breaking news, developing content, interviewing guests, doing research, preparing and vetting copy. Ideally the candidate will have experience in building a television line-up and producing television programming. You are expected to make independent editorial decisions. There is considerable latitude for initiative and independent judgment.

Experience

Leadership experience and the ability to inspire others.

Credentials

Must possess a valid driver's licence as well as a driving record that meets the minimum requirements of CBC/Radio-Canada's insurance company, other classes considered an asset.

Education Requirements

University degree or equivalent with five year of experience of which three must involve work in broadcasting.

Essential Skills

We are looking for a candidate with the following:

Keen interest in telling the stories that are important to the diverse and culture rich communities of Prince Edward Island.

Superior writing, editorial and production skills. Skills in cross-platform media production.

Solid journalistic background.

Ability to choose relevant, audience focused stories, which reflect issues being discussed by the general public.

Quick to react and respond to breaking stories.

Interest and knowledge of events and issues in the community.

Innovator and risk taker.

Commitment to reflecting community and diversity.

Demonstrated social media skills.

Demonstrated knowledge of Prince Edward Island.

Candidates may be subject to skills and knowledge testing.
