

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

JOB POSTING - Program Development Officer

Organization: Right To Play International

Department/Division: Indigenous Program

Work location: Toronto OR Vancouver, Canada. Potential to work remotely.

Work arrangement: A combination of in-office and remote-working in accordance with Right To Play's work arrangement and the operational needs of the department

Authorized to work in: Canada (Eligible to work legally without requiring sponsorship)

Target Hiring Range: $55,000 - $59,000 CAD per annum

Target Start Date: Immediate

Contract Duration: Permanent/Full-time

Closing Date: August 7, 2022 at 11:59pm ET

BACKGROUND:

Right To Play is a global organization that protects, educates and empowers children to rise above adversity using play. By harnessing play, one of the most powerful and fundamental forces in a child's life, we helped 2.3 million children last year to stay in school and out of work, to prevent life-threatening diseases like HIV and malaria and to stay safe from exploitation and abuse. We are the only global development organization focused exclusively on using play to transform the lives of children and youth impacted by poverty, war, disease and inequality.

Established in 2000, Right To Play reaches children through experiential programming in 15 countries in Africa, Asia, the Middle East, and North America. These programs are supported by our headquarters in Toronto, Canada; London, UK and eight national offices across Europe (Germany, The Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, UK) and North America (Canada, US).

With a shared passion for our mission, our Culture Code guides how we act and interact based on five core pillars:

Accept Everyone - Be intentional about inclusion

Make Things Happen - Seek opportunities to lead and innovate

Display Courage - Act with integrity

Demonstrate Care - Look after yourself and one another

Be Playful - Have fun at work

JOB SUMMARY:

Reporting to the Senior Manager, Partnerships and Development, the Program Development Officer, Quality Education and Program Partnerships (PDO, QE&PP) will be responsible for ensuring that the priority areas of the strategic plan are designed and implemented with a high degree of quality and effectiveness and aligned with meeting community-level needs, OCAP Principles and organizational strategies and outcomes. You will work with external partners, advisory/working groups, and consultants in strategic priority areas to support the development and implementation of teacher training programs, responding to crisis resource and program, and the development of a program partnership model. Collaboratively working with the Indigenous Programs team, including the Training Team, you will provide guidance and support in the training and program deliverables for the Indigenous Programs to implement training and resource development in the assigned strategic plan areas. You will be expected to travel to program locations across Canada, up to 50%.

PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITIES:

Job Responsibility #1: Quality Education, Program Partnerships and Responding to Crisis (30% of Time):

Collaborate with RTP staff and external partners in the development and implementation of culturally responsive educational workshops and programming

Organize external recruitments and meetings for an education advisory, education consultants, working groups, and community partner engagements

Work with the Training team in leading the review of, and compilation, of existing RTP workshops and development of a program partnership model that accurately reflects education program partnerships and a fee-for-service model for the education trainings and workshops

Work with the Training team to develop and implement effective trainings for external partnerships and for the Indigenous Programs team

Develop a partnership program model (PPM) that will outline fee-for-service options

Facilitate and lead relevant internal teams (Training; MEL; Programs; etc) on the revision of the core Health & Wellbeing (PLAY) Program, for a January 2024 launch, in line with the strategic plan

Lead in the development of creating a strategy (program, resource, and/or training) for the Indigenous Programs team to respond to crisis

Organize external and internal recruitments and meetings for Indigenous mental health consultants, working groups, and community partner for input and direction on appropriate crisis response approaches

Lead in the review of, and compilation, of existing RTP crisis response resources and materials, and develop a strategy for RTP in Canada to appropriately respond to crisis asks from community partners

Work with the Training team to develop effective training, programming and/or approaches to responding to crisis for the Indigenous Programs team

Develop a plan and travel to communities at times of crisis and at request

Work with internal and external partners to develop and implement programming and training that uses an Indigenous Methodologies approach, and is aligned with the OCAP Principles

Write and prepare reports on each priority area, and occasionally present information to RTP staff, Indigenous Advisory and external partners, as directed and when required

Provide support to the other Program Development Officer on strategic plan priority areas, when available and required

Job Responsibility #2: Research and Program Development (25% of Time):

With guidance from Sr. Manager, Partnerships and Development, and through research and content-expert advisory circles, create a clear theoretical/evidence-based framework to support the strategic plan focus areas

Work with the Sr. Manager, Partnership and Development, to create a comprehensive program development plan, including planning, pilot and implementation stages, for the strategic plan focus areas based on consultant expertise and research/advisory circles; including but not limited to developing program framework/cycle, partnership engagement, application process, evaluation framework, training & curriculum needs, costing; etc.

Collaborate with the Training & Curriculum team to develop frameworks and work plans for creation of supporting program tools and staff training that support the strategic plan focus areas

Accountability of developing and executing work plans; setting their work plan to meet priorities, goals, and timelines in alignment with the strategic plan

Work collaboratively with staff and working groups in the development and implementation of the strategic priority focus areas while using a play-based learning approach and critical pedagogical lens to inform the successful programming and outcome goals

Lead and organize meetings and working group sessions with staff, external expert advisory circles, consultants, and community partnerships specific to the strategic plan focus areas

Provide written updates for internal and external reporting on the development and progress of the strategic plan focus
