

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Ministry of Attorney General: Vancouver

Legal Counsel

An exciting opportunity for junior counsel to join the Litigation Group

Lawyers in the Legal Services Branch discharge the duties and functions assigned to the Attorney General under the Attorney General Act. Legal Counsel represent the Attorney, the Province and other government associated persons and entities in all levels of court. They are expected to negotiate and recommend settlements where appropriate and provide litigation-related advice in every area of government practice. The work of a Legal Counsel involves matters of a confidential and sensitive nature.

Legal Counsel have a broad range of professional skills enabling them to give advice in areas of law outside the dimensions of their regularly assigned legal responsibilities. These lawyers deal with matters that can involve large sums of public funds and/or of importance to the public interest. They are expected to advise on current developments in the law which may affect areas of concern to government. They may assist in developing and recommending alternatives and initiating changes in these areas of the law when required.

Qualifications for this role include:

- must be a member in good standing or immediately eligible to become a member of the Law Society of British Columbia;
- 3-5 years of call to the bar in a Canadian jurisdiction; and
- experience in the conduct of litigation at the Supreme Court of British Columbia and/or the British Columbia Court of Appeal.
