

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Ministry of Forests

There is currently one (1) permanent opportunity available with the Skeena Stikine District. This position can be in Burns Lake, Smithers or Terrace, BC. Other Ministry office locations may be considered, subject to Ministry operational requirements and space availability at time of offer.

Senior Advisor, Indigenous Relations

$70,683.48 - $89,678.84 annually, plus a $37.31 bi-weekly isolation allowance for Burns Lake and a $34.20 bi-weekly isolation allowance for Smithers

The Senior Advisor, Indigenous Relations examines controversial proposals of high economic value for use of natural resources on Crown Land and determine the impact on Indigenous Nations identified or potential traditional use areas. This position carries out consultations and negotiations to address Indigenous peoples' concerns while minimizing any negative impacts on provincial revenues.

As the Senior Advisor, Indigenous Relations, you will play the lead role in supervision, training, and elements of leading system set-up in the area of consultation. In addition to the mandatory job requirements, the recruitment for this role will focus on skills and experience related to three major themes: training and Indigenous relations resource development for the District of Skeena Stikine staff; problem solving and issues management in the natural resource sector; as well as consultation knowledge and experience.

Qualifications for this role include:

- Must be registered, or immediately eligible for registration, with the British Columbia professional association as required by the specialty area (i.e. Association of Forest Professionals, Institute of Agrologists, or Association of Professional Engineers and Geoscientists of the Province of BC). Note: Immediately eligible for registration is defined as being able to transfer a current membership from an applicable jurisdiction to the BC association within six (6) months of employment. Confirmation of registration/eligibility is required before an offer of employment can be made.

- Master's Degree in natural resource management, forestry, agrology, engineering or a related discipline and at least one (1) year of recent (gained within the last five (5) years), related experience; OR,

- Bachelor's Degree in natural resource management, forestry, agrology, engineering or a related discipline and at least three (3) years of recent (gained within the last five (5) years), related experience.

Recent (gained within the last five (5) years), related experience must include both of the following:

- Experience conducting research and analysis related to land use, resource management, social or economic development issues and preparing recommendations for senior decision-makers.

- Experience leading consultations or participating in negotiations with Indigenous peoples.
