

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Ministry of Social Development and Poverty Reduction: Multiple locations
Employment and Assistance Worker

$51,532.63 - $58,345.59

Bring your client service skills and make a difference for people in B.C.

The Community Services Branch delivers programs and services through both community and integration services to clients across the province. The Virtual Services Branch delivers programs and services to clients across the province through a virtual service delivery model.

Employment and Assistance Workers (EAWs) play an important role in the lives of British Columbians seeking income and disability assistance. As an EAW, you'll join a team of client service superheroes working across the province, serving clients in person, online, and over the phone. EAWs determine eligibility for assistance, and deliver impactful decisions to citizens, sometimes in sensitive or crisis situations. EAWs are active listeners, possess strong verbal communication skills, and maintain calm, compassion and clarity during difficult conversations.
