Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Posting 21-22 Management Position Regular Full-time

The following statements are intended to describe the general nature and level of work performed. They are not representing an exhaustive list of all responsibilities, duties and skills required.

Bishopâ€™s University is seeking a Manager of the Practice Teaching Office in the School of Education. The School of Education at Bishopâ€™s University has been graduating teachers for over 100 years. We understand teacher education to consist in preparing educators to be leaders with a broad understanding of the complex relationships between learning, communicating, dialogue, community building, empowerment, critical thinking, and capacity building. Our success in doing so is communicated back to us through employers who return yearly to recruit our graduates even before convocation. It is our goal for our graduating teachers to â€œrecognize teaching as an intellectual pursuit and a social responsibility. They demonstrate the qualities of responsible and autonomous practitioners who show a capacity for ongoing critical reflection, potential for leadership, and commitment to the transformative power of education.â€• Our students achieve this through the development of 12 professional competencies in a variety of contexts, including practicum experiences across the 4 or 5 years of the program.

Reporting to the Dean â€“ School of Education, The incumbent is responsible for the management and coordination of the Practice Teaching Office, the office that coordinates student practicum placements. Their work will be carried out in collaboration with a variety of stakeholders, including but not limited to: full-time and contract faculty members, administrative staff, practicum supervisors, associate teachers, and community members both within and outside the university. The successful candidate will work closely with partners within and outside the School of Education to ensure that student field placements respect the guidelines provided by the MinistÃ“re de lâ€™Ã‰ducation et de lâ€™Enseignement supÃ©rieur (MEES), and align with the overall program vision set by the School of Education at Bishopâ€™s University. The Manager of the Practice Teaching Office will also oversee the work done by the administrative assistants for the Practice Teaching Office. This position has a work week of 35 hours from Monday to Friday with occasional evenings and weekends required.

Nature of Duties & Responsibilities

- Provide leadership and guidance to the Practice Teaching Office staff and collaborate with the Director of Practice teaching (a faculty member) to ensure effective and productive performance of the office
- Manage and coordinate the work of the Practice Teaching Office, including the administrative assistants for the Practice Teaching Office
- Manages the office budget of the Practice Teaching Office
- Pilot, monitor and report on models for practicum placements, including reviewing procedures and forms, in collaboration with the Director of Practice Teaching
- Supports the Dean with the recruitment process for the Practicum Supervisors
- Manage student practicum placements, rotation, and location with support from the administrative assistants
- Plan, organize and facilitate events involving Students, Professors, Associate Teachers (ATs) and Supervisors in collaboration with the Director of Practice Teaching
- Plan and implement a process for developing the AT and Supervisor competencies, in collaboration with the Director of

Practice Teaching

- Monitor and recommend action related to evaluation reports for student teachers, in collaboration with the Director of Practice Teaching, including supporting specific cases
- Support student teachers in the field, including activities such as: participation in the Competency Development Plan process, school-based meetings and observations, responding to calls and e-mails, etc.
- Represent Bishopâ€™s University on committees external to the university related to practice teaching, such as CIACRE (ComitÃ© dâ€™actualisation du cadre de rÃ©fÃ©rence de la formation des formateurs de stagiaires)
- Generate and maintain regular reporting on the activities of the Practice Teaching Office
- Other tasks as assigned.
