

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Indigenous Student Success Counsellor

Sunshine Coast School District No. 46 welcomes applications from enthusiastic and dynamic educators to fill the following position:

Job Posting Number: T1920-111 EXT

Position: Counsellor

F.T.E.: 0.857 F.T.E.

Effective Dates: September 1, 2019 to June 30, 2020

The assignment is Indigenous Student Success Counsellor, effective September 1, 2019 to June 30, 2020. The schedule will be determined by the principal and will match the intent and framework of the program and the schedules of the schools assigned. The position works with students, parents and the Indigenous community in all secondary school settings as well as in partnership with other services for Indigenous Peoples under the direct supervision of the District Principal of Indigenous Programs and Services, in collaboration with school staff and administration and Indigenous Education Support Program staff.

The successful candidate will:

- have completed, or be actively working towards, a master's degree in counselling psychology or a related field such as educational psychology, developmental psychology, social work, special education or Indigenous counselling;
- have proven and thorough understanding of Indigenous Peoples' history, culture and contemporary lifeways/issues through considerable and demonstrable life experience and coursework in Indigenous Education and/or First Nations Studies;
- have extensive knowledge of secondary school courses/programs, course selection processes, course change processes, and other aspects of secondary school academic counselling, including new curriculum, student record management systems and associated technology; and
- have knowledge of work experience programs, secondary school apprenticeship programs, post-secondary school and First Nations Employment Society programs and services, and other transition services available for Aboriginal students/youth transitioning to further learning and/or the workplace.

Education Requirements

Masters degree.

How to Apply

Applicants must have training and experience teaching the subjects and levels noted above. Also evidence of the successful application of instructional and professional skills (as per Article E.27.3 of the Collective Agreement) must be provided.
