

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

About Children's Aid Foundation of Canada and Stand Up for Kids

Children's Aid Foundation of Canada is our country's leading charity dedicated to improving the lives of children and youth involved in the child welfare system. We raise and grant funds and deliver a wide range of high-impact programs and services in partnership with 74 child- and youth-serving agencies across the country that support more than 19,300 vulnerable young people and 4,200 families annually.

Stand Up for Kids is our national public movement uniting caring Canadians in changing the futures of our nation's most vulnerable kids – those who have experienced abuse and neglect. We know that by helping these young people to overcome their trauma and break the cycle for future generations, they gain the strength and resilience to create a lifetime of their own unstoppable successes.

The Foundation is a dynamic and growing organization committed to the long term growth and stability of funding for child welfare programs across the country. Our staff members are a highly committed team of professionals who are dedicated to delivering excellence and maximizing the social value of donations and volunteer contributions to child welfare in Canada.

Purpose of the Position

The Vice President Communications, Brand and Marketing plays a pivotal role developing and executing strategies that create greater awareness, elevate the work of the Foundation and its reputation as a national leader in child welfare that ultimately drives donations critical to the Foundation's work. The VP is a member of the Executive leadership team reporting to the CEO and working in partnership with the Chief Development Officer, Chief Operating Officer and the Senior Director of Finance and Admin.

The VP is responsible for the Foundation's overall marketing communications portfolio and digital experience and will play a strategic role in developing and executing key marketing communications, thought leadership/reputation building, and public engagement at the Foundation with the following areas of focus: 1) leading the Foundation's brand strategy, corporate communications, and thought leadership; 2) amplifying the overall philanthropic and fundraising goals of the Foundation through cross-team collaboration on key public facing campaigns (owned, earned, paid); 3) leading a cross-functional team to articulate and elevate the Foundation's government relations and advocacy activities and 4) leading public engagement via production and execution of high quality, high impact signature awareness raising, revenue generating and mission delivery events.

The VP will be an experienced senior communications leader who understands that a strong brand and impact-centric narrative is critical to creating awareness and inspiring action with key stakeholders: prospective and existing donors and supporters, government (all levels), journalists, influencers and the general public. Understands the power of the digital universe including the importance of building and growing a community of supporters committed to advancing the messages the Foundation in a way that grows the influence of the organization as a national leader in child welfare.
