Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Link's Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Job Description:

As a Management Consultant, you will work with senior management and key stakeholders to provide consulting services to support the planning, implementation and evaluation of policies and programs that support improved service delivery to vulnerable clients within the housing and homelessness service system. You will be part of a team that develops strategic, evidence-based policies and programs that support divisional priorities and are responsive to emerging needs. This involves leading/supporting continuous improvement initiatives in the practice areas of: strategy development and planning; program and service review and improvement; business process review; customer service improvement; performance measurement; and benchmarking and reporting of results.

The Shelter, Support and Housing Administration (SSHA) division is currently recruiting two temporary, full time Management Consultants to join:

The Business Practice Modernization team:

Reporting to the Manager, Business Practice Modernization, this Management Consultant will collaborate with operational teams to implement improvements to the way work is done and the benefits realized by clients of SSHA. The team leverages expertise in project planning, change management, performance measurement, and research and analysis to support organizational projects ranging from technology adoption, cross-team collaboration and alignment, performance indicator development and fostering a culture of continual improvement.

The Infrastructure, Planning & Development team:

The COVID-19 Transition & Relocation Management Consultant will report to the Manager, Operations & Support Services within the Infrastructure Planning & Development section. The Management Consultant will strategically plan, develop and support all homelessness services related to the life cycle of divisional assets, and partner assets while engaging communities and stakeholders to support the successful operation of new services and ensure assets are maintained best to serve shelter users, staff and the community.

What will you do

As a Management Consultant, you will also be responsible for the following:

- Implement detailed plans and recommend policies and procedures regarding program-specific requirements.

- Coordinates strategic social policy development and planning activities involving other orders of government, other City divisions, community agencies, residents and other stakeholders to meet identified regional, city-wide, divisional and community social and economic needs.

- Provides oversight and accountability to research and community engagement budgets, ensuring that expenditures are controlled and maintained within approved budget limits.

- Provides analysis, policy formulation, coordination, briefing notes, presentations and advice to senior managers regarding decisions and recommendations for programs, services, performance and corporate issues at both a strategic and operational level.

- Shapes, defines and directs consulting projects and service improvement initiatives in consultation with clients and key stakeholders, determines focus, scope, objectives, methodology, activities and timing.

- Lead stakeholder engagement, leadership alignment, and communication based on stakeholder assessment to make recommendations to senior management for implementation of a new service plan.

- Identify innovative and resourceful approaches, concepts and methods of analyzing complex, and competing issues to make recommendations for with service system improvements.

- Provide advice to senior management through the development of detailed and timely strategic planning assignments, including the preparation of planning materials, reports, briefing notes and presentations as required for the project sponsors.

- Support management in assessing and devising solutions from a pragmatic and objective perspective.

- Be a divisional representative and bring analysis and conclusions forward to internal and external stakeholders, chair meetings and promote systematic discussion.

- Lead and/or support project steering committees and lead interdepartmental teams and working group in the development and application of policies, the identification of a range of options for operations, policies, information systems and management practices, and the assessment of the implications and viability of each option, and recommend changes to support management priorities and functions, and strengthen internal controls.

â€¢ Develop, implement and maintain systems for collecting, monitoring and reporting program performance, supporting decision-making and meeting the reporting requirements for Senior Management and City Council.

â€¢ Develop analytical tools and associated performance measurement documentation, including procedure manuals, and provide training sessions and formal presentations where appropriate.

â€¢ Analyze and communicate risks from the timely collection of policy, program and performance data so that mitigation strategies may be developed.

â€¢ Develop innovative, effective methods of presenting service system information (i.e., dashboards, scorecards, reports, etc.) to senior management and key stakeholders

â€¢ Collaborate with and support Strategic Communications and divisional management on developing and executing the communication efforts across multiple channels to promote the goals and benefits of the projects.

â€¢ Foster and maintain cooperative working relationships within and external to the organization; establish and maintain contact with professionals in related fields to ensure skills, knowledge and practice are current.

â€¢ Ensure a strong, effective and professional working relationship with all sections in the SSHA Division to ensure that program solutions and service improvement are accurately collected and maintained, and liaise with senior management on performance data, measurement, reporting issues and outcomes.

â€¢ Work closely with project managers to assess that projects will be successfully delivered.

â€¢ Support individual projects by providing advice and guidance regarding project governance, management and benefits realization.

What do you bring to the role

1. Post-secondary education in a relevant field such as Public Administration, Business Administration, Public Policy or an equivalent combination of relevant experience and education.
