

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

The BC Aboriginal Child Care Society (BCACCS) is a Centre of Excellence for Indigenous Early Learning and Child Care (IELCC). We are looking for an IELCC Administrative Assistant - Contracts to support the Society's contract management process.

Position Summary

Reporting to the IELCC Project Manager, the Administrative Assistant - Contracts will support the Society's contract management process with the goal of ensuring IELCC funding recipients are supported to complete financial contract and reporting requirements promptly and consistently. The Administrative Assistant - Contracts will work independently and communicate with internal and external stakeholders and recipients, forging positive and respectful relationships.

What We Offer

The opportunity to work with a passionate and dedicated team with a broad range of experience and knowledge that provide leadership, training, resources, and services to support Indigenous early learning and child care.

- competitive wage of $49,140 - $54,600 per year, commensurate with knowledge and experience
- extended health package upon successful completion of a 90-day probationary period
- participation in a matched pension plan
- 35-hour work week
- learning and developmental opportunities

Responsibilities and Deliverables

- Provide administrative support on a day-to-day basis to the IELCC Project Manager and team
- Track all funding agreements throughout the signatory process and follow up as required
- Track funding recipient compliance and report monthly to the IELCC Project Manager
- Ensure, on an ongoing basis, that funding agreement records are monitored as fully as possible, collaborating with Community Facilitators and the IELCC Project Manager to liaise with funding recipients regarding details and timelines
- Maintain well-organized physical and digital filing systems for contracts and reports
- Support the IELCC Project Manager, Community Facilitators, and funding recipients with reporting

Experience

Requirements and processes

- Together with the IELCC Project Manager, coordinate annual follow-up for audited financial statements
- Triage information received and ensure email and telephone calls are responded to and/or forwarded to appropriate staff
- Become familiar with BCACCS's interim investment strategy and IELCC Funding Policy

Education Requirements

Qualifications Training, Education, and Experience

- Bachelor's degree
- 2+ years' experience in contract management and/or a related field
- Experience working with First Nations in BC (with some knowledge of the early education sector preferred)
- Possess a valid driver's license, operational vehicle, and be willing to travel occasionally
- Satisfactory criminal record check
- Proof of COVID-19 vaccination

Essential Skills

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities

- Knowledge of BC First Nations culture, history, and issues coupled with cultural awareness and sensitivity
- Excellent computer skills, specifically:
 - Advanced word processing skills (Word)
 - Advanced spreadsheet knowledge (Excel) including manipulating data, creation of data visualizations, formatting, and formulas
 - Experience using a database (Blackbaud products preferred)
 - Advanced collaboration tools (Outlook, OneDrive, SharePoint, Teams, and Zoom)
- Intermediate Adobe Acrobat Reader/Writer skills, including preparing documents for esignature and creating fillable PDFs

- Proficient digital file-management
- Professional verbal and written communication skills
- Strong analytical skills with an ability to develop creative solutions
- Able to support a high-performing team in a demanding environment by taking initiative, prioritizing needs, and meeting tight deadlines
- Approachable, professional, personable, and able to build harmonious working relationships
- Sound judgment, commitment to confidentiality, and the ability to prioritize workload
- Self-directed and able to work with minimum supervision
