

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

About the Canadian Urban Institute:

The Canadian Urban Institute is the heart of Canadian city building. We are a collaborative and inclusive platform where policymakers, urban professionals, leaders, activists, and academics from diverse backgrounds come together to shape vibrant and equitable communities across Canada.

Role Description:

CUI is seeking a highly motivated and experienced individual to join our team. The Senior Research Planner will work on a range of projects related to CUI's mandate of achieving healthy urban development. The candidate should have experience coordinating complex planning, policy and research assignments and initiatives.

Core Responsibilities include:

1. Research, analysis and reporting

- Investigate, analyze and identify solutions to complex urban planning and policy issues.
- Develop plans, strategies and frameworks that build the capacity of local partners on a wide range of planning matters, such as climate change, housing, economic development, and main streets/downtowns.
- Lead data collection processes and analyze demographic, geographic and economic data collected in research.
- Integrate information obtained through research into concise, well-structured, easily understood reports, memos and other tools.

2. Stakeholder engagement

- Design and implement engagement activities with public and stakeholder organizations such as through workshops, focus groups, advisory groups, surveys and interviews.
- Lead, facilitate and oversee the planning and execution of meetings and public and stakeholder engagement activities.
- Prepare and give presentations to clients, communities and stakeholders.

3. Project management

- Develop and execute project work plans, from project design to implementation.
- Manage project budgets and organize project resources to ensure deliverables meet scope, schedule, quality requirements.
- Lead and manage cross-disciplinary teams that include multiple sub-consultants and stakeholder groups.
- Manage and oversee junior staff and interns, including consultants.
- Work with communications staff to develop and design communication and outreach materials such as newsletters, websites, posters, press releases and social media content.
- Build and maintain effective working relationships with local partners and stakeholders.

Diversity:

The Canadian Urban Institute is committed to fostering a supportive and inclusive workplace culture, where people from all backgrounds can thrive. We place high value on diversity and encourage applications from all equity-deserving groups. We are committed to an environment that is barrier free

If you require accommodation during the hiring process, please inform us and we will arrange accommodation.

Experience

Minimum 7-10 years of experience leading and delivering complex projects related to planning, policy and research studies.

Education Requirements

Post-Secondary education in urban planning or equivalent. Graduate degree preferred.

Essential Skills

Essential Skills & Traits:

- A keen interest in urban issues.
- Ability to work across multiple projects, building relationships with stakeholders and doing what it takes to achieve project outcomes.
- Well-developed ability to effectively communicate with diverse and cross-cultural and cross-sector audiences.
- Commitment to team success, shared knowledge, highly ethical behavior and improving society.
- Maintains an informed, anti-racist and anti-oppressive orientation in personal and professional affairs.
- Ability to work flexible hours from time to time.

Microsoft Office fluency.

Work Environment

Working Conditions:

This is a flexible position (hybrid - Toronto or remote) and requires the ability to work during regular business hours (ie. 9:00am - 5:00pm EST Monday to Friday), with the ability to work flexible hours from time to time.
