

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Link's Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Job number: R-1003404

Location: Ottawa, Ontario

Closing date: June 5, 2022

Language(s) required: English, French

Worker Type: Permanent

Relationship-building expertise rewarded:

Develop strategic partnerships that will enhance FCC's ability to serve Canada's agriculture producers, agribusiness operators and agri-food entrepreneurs. This position is designated bilingual (English and French), and the successful candidate must be able to communicate in both of Canada's official languages.

What you'll do:

- Build and manage relationships with influencers in the agriculture industry and key government departments
- Contribute sector-specific and industry information in support of the corporate strategic planning process
- Lead the FCC visitation program for members of parliament
- Coach and mentor colleagues on building relationships within the industry and government

What we're looking for:

- Strong communicator comfortable interacting with audiences at all levels of partner organizations
- Experienced networker passionate about connecting people in agriculture with government stakeholders for the mutual benefit of moving the industry forward
- Strategic thinker who can translate observations into insights and forward-looking recommendations

What you'll need:

- A bachelor's degree in agricultural finance, business or commerce and at least five years of experience (or an equivalent combination of education and experience); extensive agricultural industry knowledge supplemented by knowledge of FCC's lending and non-lending products and services is an asset
- Expertise in stakeholder relations, analysis of the agriculture industry, and the processes and policies of government and parliament
- Intuitive understanding of political factors, key issues, risks and opportunities in the agriculture industry
- Demonstrated ability to build relationships and rapport with people at all levels of a wide variety of organizations and associations, including government
