

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Link's Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Do you want to be part of the team at Winnipeg's number one radio station

We are looking for a bright, energetic, creative Associate Producer who loves radio and knows a great story when they see one. The ideal Associate Producer is web savvy, with a proven track record in radio.

Who we are:

CBC Manitoba, like all of CBC's regional centres, believes in the importance of content, community and internal culture.

As part of our team, you'll play a key role in focusing on these three priorities outlined in our Local Services strategy:

Content: In this role, you will ensure that all CBC journalistic standards are met and that our stories are fair, balanced, accurate, thoughtful and immediate, and resonate with the communities we serve. You will further our original, enterprise and investigative storytelling and ensure we are talking about what matters most to people throughout Winnipeg and the rest of the province. You're innovative and will try new things, new workflows and new story treatments. You inspire others to do the same.

Community: As the industry shifts, local news and community storytelling is more important than ever. You will understand the diverse and changing population in Manitoba and the importance of reflecting all our communities in our content.

Culture: You live and promote the values of diversity and an inclusive and respectful work culture.

This is what you'll do:

Pitch and produce stories.

Write for CBC Radio's Information Radio, Radio Noon, and Up to Speed.

Write for our website.

Interview people in the field, gather tape, mix sound.

And if you sound good on radio, you'll end up on air too.

Experience

Two years of relevant experience preferred.

Education Requirements

University degree or equivalent preferred.

Essential Skills

You are passionate about your community.

Have a deep understanding of Winnipeg.

You have a deep knowledge and are connected to the Indigenous and/or a visible minority community in Winnipeg.

You're a creative and curious storyteller.

A strong interviewer.

You're a critical thinker.

You are collaborative and work well within a team.
