Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Your role as the Senior Manager of Productions Services, Media Production for Manitoba and Saskatchewan is a key part of the CBC Local Services leadership team.

Guided by the Local Services Vision, Purpose and Strategy and the pillars of Content, Community and Culture, the core focus of this position is leading change - and being a pro-active partner in change with the leadership teams and staff.

The position requires a commitment to public service and putting our audiences and communities first in a rapidly changing media landscape. You will have a strong focus on driving strategy, constant collaboration, innovation and risk taking across the region and the organization. You will also demonstrate a clear commitment to inspiring and developing staff, and creating an inclusive, diverse and creative work culture.

You will be responsible for planning, coordinating and directing staff and production resources at our operations in Manitoba and Saskatchewan. You will also be responsible for the physical assets and building management, along with providing specialized technical and production guidance to our program and content teams across all platforms.

You will be a forward-thinking, solutions-oriented, risk-taking leader with a demonstrated history of excellence, resourcefulness and resilience.

The position is based in Winnipeg.

Experience

Dynamic, people-focused, strategic leadership with experience in successfully leading teams through change.

Superior communication and interpersonal skills including the ability to communicate organizational objectives and values to employees and colleagues in order to motivate and direct them. Excellent writing skills.

Proven experience in developing and sustaining highly-engaged, well-performing and adaptive teams.

Experience leading and working in a unionized environment with a familiarity of collective agreements.

Proven experience managing budgets.

Education Requirements

Extensive knowledge of media, digital and broadcast production and technologies. You have the capacity and thirst for learning to lead teams in a quickly evolving digital multi-platform space.

Essential Skills

Superior communication and interpersonal skills including the ability to communicate organizational objectives and values to employees and colleagues in order to motivate and direct them. Excellent writing skills.

An understanding that coaching and collaboration are key methods in helping teams move forward to achieve and surpass local, regional and corporate goals and objectives.

Demonstrated ability to be both bold and brave against strategic objectives.

Solid planning and organizational skills and demonstrated ability to implement strategies and plans successfully in a smart, engaged workplace.

Strong critical thinking skills to analyze, understand and conceive workflows, processes, teams and systems that optimizes resources.

Ability to handle multiple demands and/or projects simultaneously in a fast-paced environment with tight deadlines while keeping teams focussed. You have the ability to be flexible and can shift gears quickly.

Ability to make timely, fair and effective decisions while being accountable with a strong sense of professionalism and integrity.
