

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

The Government of Alberta is committed to a diverse and inclusive public service that reflects the population we serve to best meet the needs of Albertans. Consider joining a team where diversity, inclusion and innovation are valued and supported. For more information on diversity and inclusion, please visit: <https://www.alberta.ca/diversity-inclusion-policy.aspx>.

Role

With a focus on improving outcomes for Indigenous children and families in Alberta, you will lead engagement of Indigenous communities and organizations to strengthen understanding, relationships and overall cultural competency in the delivery of services to Indigenous children, youth and families. Working within a collaborative environment, you are accountable for providing a range of supports that contribute to the overall effective management and operation of the department of Children's Services, including leading strategic policy and key corporate services. Your team will work effectively with partners to develop solutions to improving capacity in service delivery and ensuring solid planning and business processes are in place.

Qualifications

A credible and compassionate leader, you are respected for your abilities to listen attentively, plan wisely and implement effectively. Your in-depth experience with Indigenous communities and cultures has given you a deep respect for different beliefs, traditions and values. You are especially concerned about the lives of Indigenous children, youth and families, and have a keen understanding of their unique needs, and a vision for positive change.

Your background includes extensive and varied executive management experience in social services organizations and multi-stakeholder environments. You bring strengths in leading initiatives, operations and/or public policy development in a large organization with the ability to plan and influence system change. You are seasoned in working with governments and effective at building relationships with Indigenous people and communities and a broad range of stakeholders. Your experience includes fiscal management and strategic, business and operational planning. Your capacity to inspire and guide teams will support you in creating culturally appropriate service delivery throughout the province. The ability to speak an Indigenous language is preferred and a related degree is an asset.

This position has been designated for Indigenous persons under the Alberta Human Rights Act (10.1).

Other

Final candidates will be required to undergo a security screening. This competition may be used to fill current and future vacancies across government.
