

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

The Opportunity

Our Stakeholder Relations team is evolving to meet the needs of our growing business and we are expanding our presence in Ottawa, Ontario.

We are seeking a Manager, Indigenous Reconciliation and Public Policy. Reporting to the Director, Government Relations and working closely with the Director, Indigenous Relations, the successful candidate is an experienced communicator and Indigenous public policy professional with the ability to support our business in this rapidly evolving legal, regulatory and social environment. The successful candidate will hold knowledge and experience in a broad range of external affairs strategies and approaches.

What You'll Do

- Develop and execute Indigenous reconciliation and public policy priorities with Indigenous groups and organizations, government and the Canadian public policy ecosystem.
- Collaborate with Stakeholder Relations team members and business unit leaders to prioritize and manage business objectives and risks.
- Develop and execute strategies to influence regulatory reform.
- Oversee and assist in the development and dissemination of key messages to public/elected officials, and the community at large.
- Troubleshoot, address and mitigate stakeholder issues.
- Manage and monitor legislative and policy actions and trends across governments in Canada, as well as drive targeted legislative and policy initiatives.
- Ensure consistency of messaging between various internal and external audiences, representing TCE interests.
- Oversee the participation, planning and facilitation of public meetings and industry events in operations and project areas.
- Build relationships with community and stakeholder groups in key regions within company service territory.
- Actively support teams with the execution of solutions that address stakeholder concerns.
