

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Link's Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Ministry of Finance

Victoria

Strategic Advisor, Indigenous Tax

$76,200.06 - $107,800.00 annually

This is a temporary opportunity until 10/30/2021; this temporary opportunity may become permanent.

Bring your strategic orientation and exceptional negotiation skills to this important role

The Ministry of Finance plays a key role in establishing, implementing and reviewing government's economic, fiscal and taxation policies.

The Indigenous Tax Unit provides tax policy analysis, advice and recommendations to the Minister of Finance and senior ministry officials on matters concerning Indigenous taxation. The Indigenous Tax Unit is responsible for the negotiation, policy/mandate work and implementation matters relating to all tax arrangements in tripartite treaty negotiations with Canada, B.C. and First Nations and represents the Province in this regard.

The Strategic Advisor, Indigenous Tax identifies and analyzes tax policy issues, develops policy options, evaluates implications and provides high quality and comprehensive objective advice and recommendations that are effectively communicated to senior management and the Minister of Finance. The Strategic Advisor ensures advice is based on sound research and analysis and that government policy decisions are accurately implemented through legislation, regulations, and negotiated agreements. The Strategic Advisor also provides written and verbal briefings for the Minister and senior management and work with considerable independence to lead major projects and project teams. Unique to this position, the Strategic Advisor, Indigenous Tax develops First Nation taxation policy options and treaty mandates, establishes and maintains strong working relationships with a number of BC First Nations and represents the ministry at First Nations treaty negotiations.

The BC Public Service is committed to creating a diverse workplace to represent the population we serve and to better meet the needs of our citizens. We acknowledge all Indigenous peoples on whose territories we work and play. We honour their connections to the land and respect the importance of the diverse teachings, traditions, and practices within these territories. Consider joining our team and helping us build an innovative, inclusive and rewarding workplace.

Qualifications for this role include:

• Post-secondary degree in relevant discipline (e.g., economics, law, finance, commerce, public administration).

• Minimum 3 years' experience in public policy analysis/development.

• Experience participating in negotiations or consultations with First Nations.

• Experience providing advice and recommendations to senior government officials in both written and verbal form.

• An equivalent combination of education and experience may be considered.
