

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

The Vernon Health Centre is looking for an Elderly Services Worker to join its team of Community Integrated Health Services Professionals. The Elderly Services Worker functions as a primary clinician utilizing a variety of specialized treatment modalities/therapies for older individuals, groups of clients and/or their families.

The Elderly Services Worker functions as a member of the larger Community Integrated Health Services (CIHS) health care team and is a member of a specific Mental Health multi-disciplinary team. This position's role is to ensure that elderly persons with serious mental health problems, made more complex by age related issues, have access to timely, responsive, evidence-based treatment and clinical supports across the continuum of available services. Using knowledge of geriatric psychiatry and the aging process, the Elderly Services Worker provides geriatric mental health assessment, treatment, case management, community support, and as required, urgent response to clients who may, in addition to mental illness, also have serious functional impairment in the domains of physical health and personal, family, financial, occupational, and social life.

This is a casual position. Shifts are scheduled during weekdays from 08:30 to 16:30 hours.

If you are an experienced mental health professional and passionate about helping those in our community, you'll love working within a friendly and supportive team environment, and will enjoy a stimulating organizational culture.

Don't wait, make Interior Health your next best career destination. We're all about giving people room-to-grow and room-to-make a significant difference in the lives of others. Come to a place where work-life-balance is as important to us as it is to you. Apply Today!

Experience

Two (2) years' recent related experience in an elderly mental health services environment or an equivalent combination of education, training and experience.

Credentials

Current valid BC Driver's License.

Education Requirements

Bachelor degree from an accredited educational institution in an Allied Health, Behavioural, or Social Science field relevant to the position.
